

Missions: Go Ye Therefore. . .

This CD provides all the information you need to implement a dynamic missions program in your school. All 104 pages give the necessary information to instill in your students a vision for world missions. This volume will save hundreds of hours of planning mission activities throughout your school.

ISBN: 978-1-880705-27-3

SKU: 505

Cost: $24.95

Key Benefits

- Plan mission activities for all grade levels
- Identify key organizational positions along with role descriptions
- Establish trip requirements—sponsors, evaluation, preparations for the trip and much more
- Learn about the financial considerations of a trip and fund-raising, process donations, and student responsibilities
- Design a school-wide missions week for all grade levels
- Organize a teen missions department to serve both the school and the church
- Follow a prescribed monthly calendar of events to ensure success
- Learn the key items in preparation to minister
- Know what to expect and accomplish on the mission field
- View all the formal documents needed for a successful trip
- Know what you can and cannot do when on the mission field—pictures, video, dress, speech, hospitality, keeping a journal, and much more